

OUR LOCAL FOOD

Theo Chocolate

Located in Seattle, Theo Chocolate produces organic, Fair Trade chocolate. Founder Joseph Whinney first brought organic cocoa beans into the US in 1994. Theo adds only the finest, sustainably produced ingredients to their cocoa beans, proudly offering chocolate that is ethical and delicious!

UW Farm

The UW Farm was started in 2004 as a campus center for the practice and study of urban agriculture and sustainability. It's a community resource for people to learn about building sustainable urban landscapes and recently made its first sale to Housing and Food Services!

Seattle

Essential Baking

The Essential Baking Company was founded in 1994, and sells its signature breads all over western Washington. The bakery uses no synthetic additives or genetically modified organisms and its delivery fleet runs on biodiesel. Organic farming supports healthy communities, biodiversity and natural resources, now and for the future.

Hood River,
Oregon

Columbia Gorge Organic

Since 1989, Columbia Gorge Organic has been a family farm in the Hood River area of Oregon, growing more than 60 varieties of fruit and supplying us with juice squeezed right on the farm. Columbia Gorge Organic closes the natural loop with composting. The proof is in the fruit!

